MusicGiants Store featured in a Nostalgic Jukebox

QSONIX EMPOWERS VISITORS AT CES AND SHOWCASES MUSICGIANTS™ HD MEDIASTORE

ALSO LAUNCHES VERSION 2.3 SOFTWARE UPGRADE

Westlake Village, CA (January 4, 2008) – Visitors to the glitzy Grand Lobby of the Consumer Electronics Show (CES) 2008 in Las Vegas will be transported back to the future with Qsonix's new QJB-110 nostalgic Jukebox Management System. Bright lights and big sound will greet visitors at Booth GL-5 as everyone is invited to personally add to the area's musical excitement by finding that perfect song within MusicGiants' comprehensive digital library.

Qsonix is the creator of the simplest and fastest user-interface for lossless digital music storage and management. MusicGiants will be showcasing its high-definition (HD) music content at International CES. Together, they will demonstrate MusicGiants' fully-integrated, high-quality HD MediaStore within Qsonix' featured products—the QJB-110 Nostalgic Jukebox and Q-110 Music Management Systems. Users will experience seamless access to MusicGiants' premium library of more than 500,000 audio tracks, utilizing Windows Media Audio (WMA) lossless compression format. Listeners will revel in a premium bit-for-bit match of the original CD.

Newly released Version 2.3 software by Qsonix will also be featured. Employing the company's award winning Album Browser™ drag-and-drop interface, customers can quickly and easily browse, sample, purchase and play high quality music. Qsonix all-new Tapestry play-list-recommendations software now features expanded personalization. Users can build unique play lists reflecting individual music preferences and customized for specific environments. Powered by the All Media Guide (AMG™) Tapestry technology, Qsonix allows quick and easy creation of unlimited play lists. A vast library of style, theme and mood-based attributes are at the listener's fingertips. Or Tapestry turns simple into super simple with its one-button "play similar" feature, allowing the instant satisfaction of remarkably similar sounding songs from your library. You keep the vibe going, all based on hand-profiled content by AMG's expert music staff.

With a rock solid commitment to premium audio fidelity, Qsonix systems feature high-quality components, digital-to-analog (D/A) converters and digital playback technology to deliver the finest possible sound output.

Beyond a reputation earned for owning the easiest user interface on the market; Qsonix is a storage powerhouse. Users can download as many as 18,000 CDs and still experience unblemished sound. Unlike traditional CDs that can be lost, stolen or damaged, Qsonix music management systems safeguard music purchases forever.

"We're excited to work alongside MusicGiants at the upcoming CES Show in Las Vegas," said Oscar Ciornei, CEO of Qsonix. "Our partnership delivers and stores the best quality content available. For us and our customers, the dedication is to quality."

"Qsonix offers the kind of high-quality music management system that perfectly suits our high-resolution audio store, and as a bonus, they showcase the MusicGiants store with a lot of fun," says Scott Bahneman, MusicGiants' CEO. "We are looking forward to a great CES, and we are extremely pleased that Qsonix will be a featured and valued partner in our booth."
